

I am strongly against any attempt by the banking or any industry to weaken the no call requirements of Wisconsin's no call list. Any attempt to weaken the no call standards would be solely to pander to the banking industry at the expense of individuals.